

Year-Round Mentoring for Church and Organisational Leaders

with John Stevens, Adrian Reynolds and Ray Evans

Leaders

John Stevens is the National Director of the Fellowship of Independent Evangelical Churches (FIEC), a British network of 600 independent churches. Over the past eight years, he has led a reorganisation of the FIEC, which has encouraged more than 120 churches to join. He has planted two churches in very different contexts—City Church Birmingham and Christchurch Market Harborough—and is the author of Independent Church: Biblically Shaped and Gospel-Driven, Knowing Our Times, and How Can I Be Sure?

Adrian Reynolds is the Associate National Director for the FIEC, with responsibility for training and developing healthy churches. Following a career as a senior leader in the pharmaceutical industry, he served as pastor of Yateley Baptist Church and then as Director of Ministry at the Proclamation Trust before joining the FIEC in 2017. He is the author of 12 books, including And Then He Knew Her: A Biblical View of Sex; Teaching Numbers: From Text to Message, and Progress: Lifelong Growth for Christian Workers. He is also a director of several Christian charities and organisations in the UK, including an overseas mission board.

Ray Evans is the Senior Pastor of Grace Community Church Bedford and the FIEC Leadership Consultant. He has helped many large and medium-sized churches face the challenges of growth, applying both the teaching of Scripture and the best insights of successful Christian leaders and secular management theory. He is the author of Ready, Steady, Grow: Equipping Today's Gospel Churches.

Overview

GOAL: To support, equip, and mentor the leaders and aspiring leaders of larger churches, networks, denominations, and Christian organisations to face the complexity of leading growing ministries. It will help them to maintain their own spiritual health and vision, to gain the skills that they will need to take their organisations to the next level and to face the challenges and obstacles that prevent organisations reaching their full gospel potential.

PLAN: John and Adrian will each mentor a small group of leaders (stream A and B) with inputs from Ray Evans. The 2021-22 Year-Round Mentoring for Church and Organisational Leaders includes:

1. Online Seminar on 13 May 2021 – exact time TBD
2. Four two-hour webinars with webinar assignments. July in streams, September and January all together and April in streams
3. A three-day retreat near Barcelona in December 2021 (exact dates TBD)
4. An individual coaching session (1½ hours) with John or Adrian in February/March (individual times to be organized)
5. A Pre-Forum Conference in Wisła (Poland) on 20 and 21 May 2022. Participants will still need to apply for the European Leadership Forum and will be responsible for paying Forum fees in order to participate in the 2022 Forum. Participants must also pay for their own travel expenses.

PARTICIPANTS: Ten to twelve leaders (in two groups) who are leading larger churches with multiple staff members (or Christian organisations with a staff in excess of ten), or who are realistically aspiring to the leadership of such an entity in the next 3-5 years.

QUALIFICATIONS: Each participant will be actively involved in Christian leadership, and be a spiritually mature Christian.

COMMITMENTS: In order to be a part of the group, you need to commit to:

1. Attend all sessions, including the Online Seminar on 13 May 2021, the retreat near Barcelona, four webinars, and the Pre-Forum Conference in 2022.
2. Access all webinars on a computer with a good broadband internet connection.

Webinars

The four 2-hour webinar sessions will be led by John Stevens, Adrian Reynolds, and Ray Evans. Two of the seminars are in streams with stream leaders (John and Adrian). Two of the seminars are all together with Ray Evans. In addition, we will arrange one on one coaching calls with each participant and their stream leader. Part of our work will be a commitment to pray for participants over the course of the year.

Participants will be supplied with a detailed reading and resource list for each webinar, which will be distributed at the introductory session at the 2021 Forum, as well as assignments and questions to consider. This curriculum will outline the proposed content of the webinars and indicative reading.

Webinar One: Individual Streams (John Stevens/Adrian Reynolds): Leading yourself

July 2021, Time: 14:00 London Time (exact date TBD)

Many Christian leaders are ineffective because they fail to nurture their own spiritual life and to develop Christ-like leadership skills. It is vital that leaders of larger churches and organisations prioritise their own spiritual health, personal godliness, and marriage relationships rather than succumb to the temptation to neglect them due to the pressures of managing the organisation. This is especially important as the church or organisation grows in size, complexity, and influence. The webinar will also consider the particular sins that afflict Christian leaders and would cause them to be disqualified from their ministries, and how to guard against them.

Webinar Two: Leading Your Team (Dr Ray Evans)

September 2021, 14:00 London Time, (exact date TBD)

NB! Delegates will need to obtain a copy of Institutional Intelligence by Gordon Smith (IVP Academic)

One of the most challenging and important aspects of leading an organisation is to lead your team. Organisational leaders need to know how to recruit, train, motivate, appraise, encourage, and occasionally remove staff and/or volunteers. The success of the ministry depends upon healthy team dynamics. Many Christian leaders find it difficult to shift from functioning as a sole-leader to a team leader, thus inhibiting the growth of their ministry and its gospel impact.

Webinar Three: Leading Through Transitions (Ray Evans)

January 2022, 14:00 London Time, (exact date TBD)

Effective leaders will inevitably have to take their organisation through periods of transition or change. This might be a period of growth, decline, revitalisation, redirection, leadership succession, or even closure. Staff, volunteers, board members, and stakeholders may find this especially difficult, and leaders may face opposition and resistance to change. This webinar will help leaders to both understand the importance of change-management and develop the skills necessary to lead their ministries forward with courage, clarity, and compassion.

Webinar Four: Individual Streams (John Stevens/Adrian Reynolds): Leading an Organisation

April 2022, 14:00 London Time, (exact date TBD)

One of the challenges for Christian leaders is to understand the specific demands of organisational leadership. The larger a church or organisation the more structure it requires, and the less it can operate on a purely relational or family-like basis. Many Christian ministries falter or fail because they cannot transition from an informal to a structured model of leadership. This webinar will help leaders to identify and develop the skills of vision-setting, organisational structure, and healthy organisational accountability. It will help leaders to understand the importance of structuring their organisation appropriately to accomplish its intended goals.
